COUNT AND SHOPGIBL.

Remarkable Marriage in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept, 40. Count Jean Ferdinand of Hochberg was married yesterday to a shoppiri named Louise Corow at Tarrytown, where the bridegroom has been engaged for some time as a chauffeur. He is a scion of the famous German family of Pless.

He was engaged to marry a German princess when a year ago he announced to his father his intention to marry a shop assistant, being in honour bound to marry her. The engagement with the Princess was broken off, and the matter was laid before the Emperor, who ordered a court of honour of Count Jean Ferdinand's regiment to consider it. This court will meet next month. In the interval the Count's father sent him to America. After a brief round to society he gave up his rank and started of earn his living as a chauffeur. He then telegraphed to the girl to come over. Every effort was made by his father to prevent the marriage, but in vain.

Daving Farldenne's Ambitions In Morocco

Paris, Sept. 10. The Temps prints a highly entertaining interview with Mmc. du Gast, who left Paris last night for Marseilles, on route for Morocco, where, as already announced, she is charged with a mission from the French Government. Some few months aco, when on a visit to Morocco, Mme, du Gast spent several weeks in the Company of most farmous Moorish brigands, who seem to have left a most charming impression upon her. Valiento she describes as "a most adorable bandit," and she has kept in constant correspondence with the noterious Raisuli. He, like Valiente, was most anxious to make her queen of all his possessions. Valiente already has thirty-six wives, but, as be told Mme. du Gast, "A word from thee, and I abandon them all." She - seemed to hesitate, so he added, in the Oriental style, "or wilt thou that I have them all sacrificed before thine eyes, or, better still, wilt thou that they remain thy slaves for life?" At which offer the whole thirty-six of them foll as one woman at the

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM. give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness-a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much thesame; the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of progration of weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour— VITAL STRENGTH & ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of the celebrated life-reviving tonic THERAPION NO. 3 as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it, will the shattered bealth be restored, THE EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRESH, and a new existence imparted in place of what had so lately seemed worn-out, "used up," and valueless. This wonderful restorative is purely vegetable and innocuous, is agreeable to the taste — sultable for all constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a case of disease or derangement, whose main features are those of debility, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this never-failing receperative essence, which is destined to the into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this wide-spreadand numerous class of human typents.

THERAPION is sold by Chemists throughout the world. Price in England, By and 4/6/1/ Parchasers abould see that the world THERAPION appears on British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty a Hon. Japan's Educational System.

The Tokyo representative of the Caske Mainichi has called on Mr Makino, Minister of Education, in reference to current reports as to proposed changes in the educational eystem. In the course of the conversation, the Minister said that the system was at present less in need of extension than of readjustment. The most urgent matter was a lengthening of the period of compulsory education, which is now only four years. In some European and American countries, Mr Makino remarked, the period is nine years, but he did not consider that Japan was as yet in a position to follow that example. In his view the, compulsory term in this country should be extended to at least six years. Mr Makino went on to say that considerble reforms would be undertaken in the Middle School system, expecially concerning the training and position of the teachers. The authorities would also endeavour toimprove the relation between the Middle Schools and the High Schools, and between the latter and the Universities.

The Japanese Department of Communi cations has under consideration a scheme to establish an office in the Imperial Rail way Bureau, in order to expedite the approaching winter and was ideal for improvement of the working of the The railways. The officials in the proposed office would study the latest books and magazines published abroad, dealing with railway matters, and consider the means to introduce the various new methods and improvements suggested. The permanent way and general stores would also be under the control of this office.

The Commissioners sent abroad, by the Railway Working Bureau in the past were given very limited time to pursue their investigations, and the result of their labours was comparatively small. It proposed that such Commissioners should in future remain abroad for two or three years, the subject to be investigated being confined to certain required particulars. At present the examination of locomotives. bridge-girders, and other works required for the railways and ordered from Europe and America is entrusted to foreign experts. The fees paid for their services would be sufficient to cover the travelling-expenses of Commissioners specially sent from Japani, and it is therefore proposed to dispense with the service of foreign expert and dispatch Japanese Commissioners to do the work of inspection.

TO-DAY.

The advent of so many American friends by the "Dakota" has inspired our artist to forswear his allegiance to .the "Types" in order to give us something topical. Our visitors as well as residents will be interested in and amused at this page of bright pictures.

SOCIABILITY BY JINGO. This writer gives all the social news the week in the light and breezy fashion that is peculiarly his own. Readers learn from this page all that is going on and they leirn it in the most agreeable manner pos-

This a good tempered pictorial jest by h new artist in connection with the Hongkong-Shanghai Cricket debacle. The genial skipper of the Hongkon; eleven is depicted shouldering the only trophy "four fellows" succeeded in bringing back.

SUM IN PROPORTION Another of the naval sketches which arrested so much attention when the series was first commenced will be found under this heading. Artists who perpetrate pictorial bulls" when drawing members of our "first line" are gently satirised. SPORTING.

A SHELLBACK SONG.

The sailor is supposed to have at least one love in every port and this song, evidently written by one who knows, bears out the supposition.

ACROSTIC COMPETITION.

As the acrostics get harder readers who have entered for the competition are getting keener. Judging by the results up to date the prizes given could easily be won by anyone entering now, as each light is becoming valuable in proportion to the lificulty of elucidation.

LIFE'S SEAMY SIDE.

Most of us have wondered at some time ranother how the bleary beach-comber zets his food and his housing. This sketch supplies the information and incidentally opens up a vein which it should be profitable to work in the future. Also it suggests a picturesque "Type."

MUSIC IN HONGKONG. The interesting reminiscences of Masions ers continued and a brief tribute is paid to a bye-gone favourite.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Topics which are timely are not easy to capture but the writers of these have done their best. You will not gain much instruction from them but it they raise a smile they will have fulfilled their purpose.
